es carved out by glaciers,
by natural beauty.

Established in 1988, we specialize in guided bicycle tours of Alaska's southeast panhandle, remote areas of Canada's northwest British Columbia and the Yukon Territory. Tour with us beyond the beaten paths and experience our pristine northern wilderness. The scenic splendor of our region has few rivals in the world. Our tours travel through landscapes carved out by glaciers, sculpted by rivers and dominated by natural beauty.

We offer a variety of tours ranging from a few hours in duration to day trips and 11-day excursions. The accommodations vary from primarily camping to staying at the regions finest hotels and B&B's. We eat and sleep in style no matter the surroundings or weather. Most tours include a night indoors every few days. All gear is provided including thick sleeping pads, cozy tents and warm sleeping bags, screened bug free gazebos with comfortable chairs for eating and relaxing.

The menu is varied and plentiful with large portions of healthy food emphasizing our fresh local seafood. A wide variety of snacks are available to keep you going throughout the day. When you are done pedaling, the van is always there to pick you up and take you to the lunch spot or the evening's accommodations. Come ride with Alaska's original bicycle touring company!

Reservation Terms & Policies

We offer custom tours, international tours, self-guided tours, and other multi-sport options. We are constantly reviewing and updating our tour program. Check our website at www.cyclealaska.com for the most current information, including tour dates and costs. Don't hesitate to contact us with any questions or special requests.

Reservations are required for all tours. A deposit of $500 is required in advance for our extended tours. Payment in full is due 60 days prior to the tour departure date. Please see our web site for our full terms and conditions.

Go to www.cyclealaska.com or call 877-292-4154 to make a reservation inquiry. Upon confirmation of your requested tour we will send you a link to our payments page. After processing your deposit we will send you the confirmation and tour details. All tour gear, meals and lodging is listed and included in the price. If you prefer you can bring your own bike and camping equipment.

A valid passport and other necessary immigration documents are required to cross the Canadian and US border. Most of our tours travel through the border. You will not be able to enter Canada or return to the US without your passport.

We are fully insured and permitted. All participants are required to read and sign our waiver/liability release and agree to our reservation terms and conditions at the time of booking. These documents are available on our website. Sockeye Cycle Co has the right to cancel a tour due to weather, being undersold, or other unforeseen circumstances.

Locations & Services

We operate two full service bike shops in Haines and Skagway from April through September staffed with professional mechanics and sales associates. Our office and shop in Haines is open year round. We are an authorized Trek, Specialized, Surly, Salsa, and Chariot dealer and stock a full assortment of parts and accessories. Mountain, road and cross bike rentals are available in both communities.

Sockeye Cycle Merchandise

Visit our online store at www.cyclealaska.com to purchase your Sockeye Cycle merchandise with our salmon riding a bike on T-shirts, guide jackets, jerseys, water bottles, hats, and more!

Golden Circle Tour

9 DAYS Bike from Haines to Skagway along the historic Dalton Trail and White Pass gold rush routes to the Klondike. While the two towns are only 15 miles apart by water, the paved road travels 360 miles through some of the most breathtaking scenery in Alaska and the Yukon.

We pass through three National and Provincial Parks that comprise the largest protected wilderness area in the world. Vehicle supported camping, B & B, and hotel stays along the way. We will dine on gourmet Alaskan fare throughout. Ride our Specialized Sirrus touring bike, or bring your favorite bike for the tour of a lifetime.

“I had a wonderful time, one of the best vacations I’ve ever had.”

itinerary

The following daily itinerary is an outline of our activities. The schedule may vary due to weather and other unforeseen circumstances. Please contact us with any questions.

DAY 1 Travel to Haines Alaska on the State ferry or by small plane from Juneau for the start of your tour. After checking into your room, we will fit you to a bicycle at our shop. The afternoon is free to explore the coastal community of Haines. Haines, surrounded by mountains and glaciers, is the gateway to the Chilkat Valley, one of the ancient access routes to interior Alaska. We meet for an orientation in the late afternoon, followed by dinner at one of our fine restaurants. The night is spent at a B&B.

DAY 2 You mount your bike in the morning and cycle along a glacial-fed river through the Chilkat Bald Eagle Preserve. You pass through Canadian Customs and camp in the Tatshenshini/Alsek Provincial Park by the banks of the Klehini River in British Columbia. 47 miles

DAY 3 You gradually wind your way up the Chilkat Pass breaking out above tree line. Just 50 miles from the coast, the scenery changes from rain forest to alpine tundra. The evening is spent camping at Million Dollar Falls in the Yukon Territory. 50 miles

DAY 4 Today you bike through Klauene National Park, a land of majestic mountains, expansive lakes and open vistas. The night is enjoyed at a quaint and rustic B&B near Haines Junction YT. 37 miles

DAY 5 You bike into Haines Junction where the Haines Road joins the Alaska/Canada Highway. You head east on the ALCAN over rolling hills. The dry interior climate is most evident in this region with scrub spruce, sandy soil and evidence of forest fires. You camp at a native cultural site near the historic trading post of Champagne. 60 miles

DISTANCE

35 - 55 miles/day

DAY 6 You continue southeast towards the Yukon River, crossing several tributaries as you pedal into Whitehorse. The capitol of the Yukon Territory is a city of 23,000 hardy folks living on the banks of the mighty river. The night is spent in a hotel. 54 miles

DAY 7 You bike southeast on the ALCAN for a short distance then turn south on the Klondike Highway. The coastal mountains beckon as you pass through the small community of Carcross. You skirt the massive headwater lakes of the Yukon River. You camp along the lakeshore. 55 miles

DAY 8 After leaving the Yukon and reentering British Columbia, the coastal mountains rise around you as you bike towards the historic White Pass to take you to the coast. A narrow gap leads you to a thrilling 15-mile descent to the coastal gold rush town of Skagway, Alaska. You relax in a historic B&B while enjoying the sights and sounds of this colorful town and your memories of biking the Golden Circle. 55 miles

DAY 9 You enjoy a farewell breakfast together at a B&B. Following breakfast you may choose to explore historic Skagway on your own. To travel home, you may take the Alaska Marine Highway ferry from Skagway or fly in a small plane directly to Juneau to catch connecting flights. You may also choose to extend your vacation either regionally or statewide.

Inside Passage Tour

9 DAYS For the soft adventurer this tour combines scenic cruising of Southeast Alaska's Inside Passage on the State ferry with active stops and comfortable accommodations in the coastal communities of Juneau, Haines and Skagway.

By day we will ride along scenic roads to picturesque picnic spots. At night we will sample local cuisine and stay in quaint inns. In addition to great biking, we'll take time to enjoy other activities such as sea kayaking, hiking, rafting and cultural education. This is the way to cruise Alaska!

“Gorgeous scenery and a small group with great service, made for a very good vacation.”

The following daily itinerary is an outline of our activities. The schedule may vary due to weather and other unforeseen circumstances. Please contact us with any questions.

DAY 1 Arrive in Juneau, Alaska. Your guide will pick you up at the airport and transport you to the Silverbow Inn. After you unpack and freshen-up you will meet your guide for a tour orientation, bike fit and a ride around Juneau, followed by dinner.

DAY 2 You depart on a morning bike ride out to the north end of Douglas Island for a walk on the beach. After lunch you board a kayak for a paddle around the cove with views of the Mendenhall Glacier. Evening options are a tram ride up Mt. Roberts and a walk around town.

DAY 3 You check out, followed by a bike ride north to Auke Bay to catch the ferry to Haines. Dinner will be served onboard while cruising Lynn Canal, North America's longest fjord. Arriving in Haines 4-1/2 hours later, you check in to the Hotel Halsingland

DAY 4 On your first day in the picturesque town of Haines, you bike along the Chilkat River. After lunch your guide takes you on a raft float through the Bald Eagle Preserve, spotting for wildlife along the banks of the glacial river.

DAY 5 In the morning you bike to the glacial-fed Chilkoot Lake. At the beautiful emerald lake, you exchange your bicycle for a sea kayak. After an orientation to paddling, you will glide silently along the shore, spotting for bear, moose, eagles, and other wildlife. The afternoon is spent on a short coastal hike to a viewpoint or relaxing at your B&B.

DAY 6 You start the day with a short bike ride along the Chilkat River tidal flats to a trailhead. You hike through the rainforest to a viewpoint where you take in the majestic scenery. In the afternoon you board the ferry to Skagway and check in to the Historic Skagway Inn. You take a bike tour of town, followed by the Days of '98 Revue.

DAY 7 You board the White Pass & Yukon Route narrow gauge railroad for the narrated trip over the summit to Fraser Station in British Columbia, Canada. From there you bike back to Skagway, descending 15 miles from the 3292' summit to the sea. The afternoon is spent hiking to a lake or relaxing at the B&B.

DAY 8 Your day starts with a bike ride from Skagway to the historic town site of Dyea. You explore the tidal flats and rainforest trails on your bicycle. You then hike two miles of the Chilkoot Trail followed by a leisurely float on a raft down the Taiya River. The afternoon is spent with a Park Service Interpreter on a town walking tour, followed by a movie about the Gold Rush.

DAY 9 After breakfast you have time to go shopping or sightseeing before departing for home or extending your Alaska adventure.

Klondike Canoe & Bike Tour

9-12 DAYS The best of Canada's Yukon! Spend the weekend in historic Dawson City enjoying the annual Dawson Music Festival. The day after the festival you put in on the Yukon River and float with the current for three days to Eagle, Alaska. Our van and trailer meet us there with mountain bikes and supplies for the ride of a lifetime back to Dawson City on the Taylor and Top of the World Highways.

This tour combines a leisurely float trip, rich in gold rush history, with spectacular biking on the Yukon Plateau.

The Yukon Territory is the size of California with a total population of only 30,000 people. Come and experience this incredible country with a local company that knows it well.

Sockeye Cycle's Klondike Canoe & Bike Tour was an adventure that surpassed all of my expectations. Many thanks for all the hard work and planning that assured that everything went along timely and smoothly."

itinerary

The following daily itinerary is an outline of our activities. The schedule may vary due to weather and other unforeseen circumstances. Please contact us with any questions.

TOUR OPTION 1 Includes the Dawson City Music Festival weekend pass, 3 nights lodging and RT van transportation to and from Dawson City in addition to the Canoe and Bike Tour.

TOUR OPTION 2 Without music festival, includes return van transportation to Whitehorse, YT or Skagway AK.

DAY 1-3 This fun dual sport adventure begins with the optional three day Dawson City Music Festival. Festival goers meet early on day one in Skagway, Alaska. That night you will check into the Downtown Hotel in Dawson for the weekend after an all-day drive across the Yukon from Skagway. The festival features excellent Canadian musicians, a relaxed atmosphere and a chance to enjoy historic Dawson City. Everyone is on their own schedule for food and fun during the festival.

DAY 4-6 Early morning on (Day 4), you put in on the Yukon River and begin your hundred mile float to Eagle, Alaska. Folks joining us for the tour only will meet us in Dawson the evening prior or will arrive on the first flight from Whitehorse. You spend the next three evenings camping on beaches and visiting historic sites along the river.

DAY 7 You arrive in Eagle, Alaska and meet our tour van. You check into your B & B and enjoy a hot shower. Bikes are prepped and you get ready for your ride the next day by exploring the historic town on foot or bike.

THE DAWSON CITY MUSIC FESTIVAL www.dcmf.com

One of the coolest events in the Yukon! The festival is optional, but it is highly recommended. 3 Days of music, games, entertainment, crafts, and merriment.

DAY 8-11 Your day starts with a climb as you ascend American Pass to your first nights camp. You continue south on the Taylor Highway then you turn onto the Top of the World Highway and cross the US-Canadian border for your next nights camp. This section provides stunning views across the Yukon Plateau. You ride the ridge east, savoring views of the Tombstone Mountains and the Yukon River Valley. Your last day of riding ends with a nine-mile coast to the river and a short ferry ride across to Dawson. You spend the night in the hotel in Dawson.

DAY 12 You leave Dawson early to return by van to Whitehorse or Skagway arriving in the late afternoon or early evening. You can spend the night in Skagway or catch a small plane to Juneau to meet your departing flight.

Canol Road Tour

11 DAYS Venture by bike to the northern edge of the Rocky Mountains in the remote Northeast Yukon. During WW II, the US army constructed a road to bring oil from the Mackenzie River in the Northwest Territories to a refinery in Whitehorse. Two years after completion the project was abandoned.

The dirt road is still seasonally maintained by the Canadian government. The winding route takes you through some of the most beautiful northern country in this hemisphere. Bike past pristine lakes with loons calling. View the scenic splendour of the autumn colors in reds and golds. Watch the Northern Lights put on a show while a wolf howls in the distance. Join us for a true wilderness experience.

“Our guides were very competent and friendly, providing good companionship along with full support for safety and equipment maintenance.”

DAVID RICHARDS

The following daily itinerary is an outline of our activities. The schedule may vary due to weather and other unforeseen circumstances. Please contact us with any questions.

DAY 1 You arrive in Skagway, Alaska. After introductions, gear check, bike fitting and a brief orientation ride around town, the van heads north into Canada to Johnson's Crossing. You stay in a motel for the night.

DAY 2 You hop on the bikes, make adjustments and loosen up your cycling legs on the winding dirt road. During the evening you relax by a campfire at a quiet Yukon lake. 47 miles

DAY 3 Black spruce and willow line the road as you skirt by small lakes and rivers heading into the Pelly Mountains. The quiet and solitude of this country prevails. The night is spent camping on the shore of Lapie Lake. Sitting by the fire brings Robert Service prose to life. 54 miles

DAY 4 Inspired by the scenery, rolling hills and curves melt by as you cycle along. The route descends into the Lapie River Canyon as you near the end of the South Canol Road. You turn left on the Campbell Highway and pedal your way to Ross River. The night is spent in the only hotel in this rustic village. 40 miles

DAY 5 The route continues towards the Continental Divide and the Northwest Territories border. You board the Pelly River ferry and cross in the van to the opposite shore where the North Canol Road begins. You shuttle by van and camp along the northern edge of the Rocky Mountains.

DAY 6 Today is spent exploring the area and relaxing while enjoying the fall colors. For those wishing to venture further by bike on a day trip, the route continues toward the NWT border.

DAY 7 Back on the bikes you drop into an open valley with the Itsi Mountains to the east. Rusty vehicle relics from the WW II era line the road. Tonight you camp overlooking the Macmillan Valley. 50 miles

DAY 8 The road traverses the remains of an old forest fire that swept through the region. Fireweed lines the way as you leave the Continental Divide behind. You camp by a Lake. 35 miles

DAY 9 The last day of riding takes you back to Ross River where your hotel room awaits and a hot shower. You reflect on the wild country you've traveled through. 65 miles

DAY 10 Early in the morning you load in van for the drive to Whitehorse and a much needed soak in a natural hot spring. If you desire there is great cycling on the local trails. After exploring the Canadian nightlife, you retire to your hotel room.

DAY 11 After breakfast you board the van for Skagway and the scenic drive on the Klondike Highway. You reflect on your Yukon adventure and enjoy the beautiful scenery of the historic White Pass. You can fly south to Juneau that afternoon or make a hotel reservation for the night.

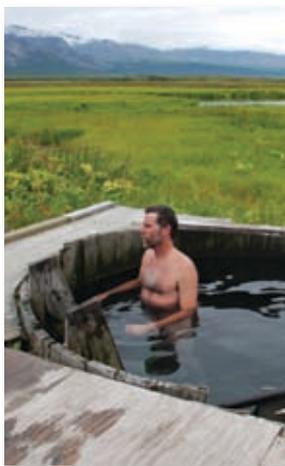

Bike Nome

9 DAYS Journey to Nome for a unique cycling adventure in Western Alaska!

Far from the tourist track except during the finish of the infamous sled dog race, the Iditarod, this area of Alaska is pristine, scenic, and perfect for a bicycle adventure. We bike with vehicle support through the tundra to a remote hot spring and venture to the end of the road in three directions.

New Tour!
Be among the first to cycle in his region of Western Alaska.

itinerary

The following daily itinerary is an outline of our activities. The schedule may vary due to weather and other unforeseen circumstances. Please contact us with any questions.

DAY 1 Meet at the airport in Anchorage Alaska for the morning flight to Nome. Upon arrival we check into the hotel, have a bike fitting and go for a ride around town. The rustic frontier charm of Nome will surprise you!

DAY 2 Our first destination is Pilgrim Hot Springs to the east. We set out in the morning on our bikes following a river filled with spawning salmon and surrounded by mountains. We camp at Salmon Lake, distance 30 miles.

DAY 3 We ride from the Lake to the historic hot springs, once the site of a church orphanage and an oasis in the tundra. After a soak in the very hot mineral water you'll be ready to relax in your bunk at a local cabin, distance 35 miles.

DAY 4 In the morning you return by van to town. After lunch you are back on your bike heading south along the coast to the Salomon B & B. You can make stops along the way for a beach walk or a beer at the Safety Road House, the last checkpoint on the Iditarod Trail, distance 33 Miles.

DAY 5 This days ride takes you to Council and the end of the Southern route, distance 40 miles. The night is spent in a lodge. You have the option at additional cost the following morning for a jet boat/fishing trip to White Mountain, weather and time permitting.

DAY 6 You return by van in the late afternoon to your hotel in Nome. You may have time to visit the museum, go for a walk or shop before dinner.

Our daily tours are perfect for shorter visits to Haines or Skagway. These tours range from 2.5 hours to 8 hours long. No matter what town you're visiting, a beautiful boat ride across the fjord makes all of our tours possible in a day.

Eagle Quest Kayak & Bike

★ DAY TOUR 3.5 HRS

This is a great dual sport adventure in Haines, Alaska. Your bicycle guide fits you to a bike to cycle along the flat road of the steep-walled fjord to the mouth of the Chilkoot River. You then bike along the river through Chilkoot State Park to the edge of a glacier-fed lake.

Along the route you make stops to view eagles and other wildlife, with possible sightings of brown bears feeding on salmon. At the lake, you exchange your bicycle for a sea kayak. Your guide outfits you with gear and gives you a paddling orientation. You then silently glide along the shores of the emerald lake. You will be transported by van to Haines in historic Ft. Seward.

Glacial Fjord Bicycle Tour

★ DAY TOUR 3 HOURS

Tour an ocean estuary and a glacial lake by bicycle. A short and informative van ride takes you to the shore of Lutak Inlet to begin your ride. Where the river meets the sea, you cruise along paved roads carved into the steep-walled fjord. Possible wildlife sightings include bald eagles, salmon, whales, sea lions, seals and bears.

Take in the gorgeous views across the emerald lake and inlet surrounded by glaciers, waterfalls, and jagged mountain peaks. This is a wonderful way to combine fresh Alaskan air and mild exercise in beautiful Haines, Alaska.

Skagway Triple Adventure

★ DAY TOUR 5.5 HRS

The Skagway Triple Adventure is the ultimate outdoor experience. You bike through the rainforest onto the coastal tidal flats, hike the same Chilkoot Trail as the early goldrush prospectors, then float down the glacial-fed Taiya river.

The tour begins with a 20-minute narrated van ride to the historic townsite of Dyea. Your guide will fit you to a mountain bike and escort you for the next 1.5 hours of easy pedaling on a flat dirt road through the temperate rainforest and tidal flats. Search for eagles and colorful wildflowers while enjoying beautiful mountain vistas along the way.

You then meet your hiking guide and spend about 1.5 hours on the Chilkoot Trail. The first mile is up and down along uneven terrain. The second mile is relatively flat. You will stop often to learn about the area, take photos, and quench your thirst. At the end of your hike, you're outfitted with rubber boots and a life jacket. The relaxing river float is the grand finale to your beautiful outdoor experience.

We conclude the tour with a short van ride back to town.
